

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation Key Messages

- 1) National Day for Truth and Reconciliation provides an opportunity for us to recognize and commemorate the history and ongoing legacy of residential schools and the trauma experienced by so many.
- 2) For those who need support, a national Residential School Survivor Crisis Line is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week: 1-866-925-4419. For non-Indigenous people, Crisis Services Canada is available to help: 1-833-456-4566.
- 3) We are committed to ongoing reflection and education and will continue to consult educational resources and Indigenous-led organizations and communities to deepen our understanding of the legacy of residential schools.
- 4) On National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, we honour residential school survivors and their families and commit to promoting good relationships and economic reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.
- 5) We believe the business community has an important role to play in reconciliation.
